TAFT AND ROOT OPPOSE BRANDEIS FOR U. S. COURT

With Other Lawyers, They Declare It 'Their Painful Duty' to File Protest.

WASHINGTON, March 14 .- Ex-President Taft, Eithu Root and five other former presidents of the American Bar Association, to-day protested to the Senate Judiciary Sub-Committee against confirmation of the nomination of Louis D. Brandels for the Supreme Court. The others were Simeon E. Baldwin, Francis Rawle, Joseph H. Choate, Moorfield Story and Peter W. Meldrim.

The first six sent a letter stating that they "felt under the painful duty to say to you that in their opinion, taking into view the reputation, charactor and professional career of Mr. Louis D. Brandels, he is not a fit person to be a member of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Mr. Meldrim wrote from Savannah, Ga.: "My reason for refusing to approve was that the reputation of Mr. Brandels at his home bar makes him an unfit person to be appointed."

Both letters were read to the committee to-day by Austin G. Fox, attorney for the opposition to the confirmation, at the reopening of public hearings.
